

Tyree Awarded New Getty Marketing Remediation Contract

- Additional 58 new sites throughout New Jersey and Pennsylvania -

Mt. Laurel, NJ – November 14, 2011 -- Tyree Holdings, Corp., an Amincor company and one of the largest petroleum and environmental remediation service companies in the U.S., today announced a contractual deal with Getty Petroleum Marketing for additional remediation services valued at approximately $6.2 million dollars.

Effective October 1st, the remediation deal increases the volume of Tyree's work for Getty with the addition of 18 sites in Pennsylvania and 40 sites in New Jersey. Tyree currently services approximately 98% of Getty Marketing sites. At the sites, Tyree will be performing remedial investigation and actions, services that were previously handled by four separate New Jersey-based providers.

"This deal reflects our confidence in Tyree as the top company to manage the environmental liability needs of our company," said Bjorn Aaserod, CEO of Getty Petroleum Marketing. "Their proven ability to provide superior service and competitive pricing are the foundation for our decision."

Tyree has provided construction, environmental, compliance and maintenance services to Getty in New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Maine and New Hampshire since 1980.

"We earn the trust of each and every client through diligent service and customer support," said Stephen Tyree, President and Chief Operating Officer at Tyree "We look forward to continuing our long-standing relationship with Getty."
